WOMEN TOGETHER MAKING WAVES

WCGN 2017 NATIONAL LEADERSHIP FORUM

ONE OCEAN RESORT, ATLANTIC BEACH, FL
MARCH 12-14, 2017

Top 10 Reasons All Y'All Should Come to Atlantic Beach

1. The average temperature in Mid-March is 74 degrees Fahrenheit. Just sayin....
2. You'll have a chance to meet Trisha Meili, author of "I Am the Central Park Jogger", who will tell you why everything you do as a volunteer is incredibly important.
3. Two words: Beach Yoga ... taught by a Women's Giving Alliance member, and COO of the local women's shelter, who will explain why therapeutic yoga is crucial for women who have experienced trauma.
4. So many shells on the beach ... so many examples of impactful grantmaking, from plenary speakers to our Spotlight Awards.
5. Meet women who share your philanthropic interests and values in a relaxed and beautiful venue. Also, did we mention the average temperature?
6. Keynote Speaker Jackie Bezos, CEO of the Bezos Family Foundation, will share their approach to putting brain science into the hands of parents and caregivers of toddlers to ensure school success. How cool is that?
7. Affinity groups could very well meet by the pool, weather permitting. Afterwards, walk on the beach, clear your head, and get a little sand between your toes.
8. Attend workshops to teach you everything you always wanted to know about grantmaking, strategic planning, membership, social media, surveys, advocacy, and building an endowment, but were afraid to ask.
9. Develop your leadership bench by exposing members to transformative grantmaking, best practices, and collective giving leaders from across the country.

10. Engage with our cutting edge brand of collective giving -- a ground-breaking philanthropic movement powered by women, powered by YOU.

“Spring Break” for Philanthropists ... Don’t Miss It!

Learn best practices that will help take your organization's philanthropic impact to the next level.
